

Study Tour at the Former Yasuda Kusuo House and Garden (Tokyo-designated Scenic Site)

Now Accepting Applications

With the cooperation of the Japan National Trust (JNT), the Japan Educational Exchanges and Services (JEES) is offering a study tour for international students at the Former Yasuda Kusuo House and Garden, a scenic site designated by the Tokyo Metropolitan Government and preserved by JNT.

In this program, you will learn how cultural properties are preserved and used in Japan, with a focus on private-sector initiatives. Many conservation activities are supported by local volunteers, and you will have the opportunity to take part in hands-on activities such as garden maintenance.

Date & Time	Sunday, September 6, 2026 10:00-13:00
Location	Former Yasuda Kusuo House and Garden 5-20-18 Sendagi, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo
Program	①Introduction to JEES and JNT' s activities ②Hands-on conservation experience (e.g., garden maintenance) ③Group discussion Share a cultural heritage site from your home country and how it is preserved ④Gramophone music demonstration
Capacity	22participants (If applications exceed capacity, participants will be selected.)
Fee	Free of charge
Eligibility	Applicants must: ①Be international students currently enrolled at a university, junior college, or college of technology in Japan (with "Student" visa status) ②Agree to complete a survey and allow photos to be used on JEES and JNT websites and materials
How to apply	Scan the QR code and submit the application form.
Deadline	Friday, Aug. 8, 2026
Notification	All applicants will be notified of the results by e-mail in early August.
Language	This program will be conducted in both Japanese and English.

<Organizer/Contact >

Japan Educational Exchanges and Services(JEES)
 Educational Exchanges Division E-mail ix2@jees.or.jp

